

MUNYON'S WORK TALK OF CITY

Big Success Shown by Numbers of Callers at Philadelphia
Headquarters.

LOCAL MAN TELLS OF
REMARKABLE RELIEF
FROM RHEUMATISM IN YEAR'S TIME.

The apparent success with which Professor James M. Munyon, the world-famous health authority, has been meeting his started much discussion. Every street car brings dozens of callers to his Laboratories at 124 and Jefferson Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., and every mail brings thousands of letters from people inquiring about Munyon's Famous Health Cure. Professor Munyon's corps of expert physicians is kept busy seeing callers and answering the mail. Peculiar to say, these physicians prescribe no medicine at all for 50 per cent. of the callers and mail inquiries; health hints, health advice and rules for right living are given absolutely free. Medical advice and consultation absolutely free.

Munyon's followers seem to be enormous. Those who believe in his theories seem to think he possesses the most marvelous powers for the healing of all sorts of diseases. Munyon himself laughs at this. He says: "The hundreds of cures which you are hearing about every day in Philadelphia are not in any way due to my personal skill. It is my remedies, which represent the combined brains of the greatest medical specialists science has ever known, that are doing the work. I have paid thousands of dollars for a single formula, and the exclusive right to manufacture it. I have paid tens of thousands of dollars for others of my various forms of treatment. This is why I get such remarkable results. I have simply bought the best products of the best brains in the world and placed this knowledge within the reach of the general public."

Among Munyon's callers yesterday were many who were enthusiastic in their praise of the man. One of these said: "For six years I suffered with rheumatism. My arms and legs were affected so badly that I could hardly work, and I could not raise my arms to my head. The pain was most severe in the back, however, and I was in perfect torture. I tried in many ways to get cured, or even to remove the disease. I was nothing seemed to help me until I was persuaded by a friend to try Dr. Munyon's Uric Acid Course. It was the most wonderfully acting remedy I ever saw, within a week the pain had most gone and inside of a month I considered myself entirely cured. I can now go out in the worst weather—cold, wet or anything else, and I have not felt any pain since. I think that every person who has rheumatism and does not take the Uric Acid Course is making a great mistake."

The continuous stream of callers and mail that comes to Professor James M. Munyon at his Laboratories at 124 and Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia, Pa., keeps Dr. Munyon and his enormous corps of expert physicians busy. Give full particulars in reference to your case. Your inquiry will be held strictly confidential and answered in a plain envelope. You will be given the best medical advice, and asked more questions. Remember that there is no charge of any kind for consultation, or medical advice. The only charge Munyon makes is when his physicians prescribe his remedies you pay the retail selling price. It is immaterial whether you buy from him or from the nearest druggist.

Emerson's Story of Gratitude.
There is a beautiful little story in Emerson's recently published "Journal," of which his son, the editor, Dr. Edward W. Emerson, said the poet was very proud.

A certain widow was so poor that she eked out the one thin bed covering by laying an old door over herself and her children.

"Mamma," one of the children said one bitter night, "what do those poor little children do who haven't got a door to cover them?"—Youth's Companion.

Was He a Bostonian?
"John," shrieked a woman, "don't go under that ladder!"

But under it John went with a swoop to the pavement.

"My dear," he said, coming up with a dollar bill in his hand, "if I hadn't gone under the ladder that boy would have beaten me to the currency."

His Inspiration.
Wagner told where he got his inspiration.

"It was from the garbage cans being emptied at night," he confessed.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic, 25c a bottle.

Calling people down is not a very uplifting process.

Particularly the Ladies.

Not only pleasant and refreshing to the taste, but gently cleansing and sweetening to the system, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is particularly adapted to ladies and children, and beneficial in all cases in which a wholesome, strengthening and effective laxative should be used. It is perfectly safe at all times and dispels colds, headaches and the pains caused by indigestion and constipation so promptly and effectively that it is the one perfect family laxative which gives satisfaction to all and is recommended by millions of families who have used it and who have personal knowledge of its excellence.

Its wonderful popularity, however, has led unscrupulous dealers to offer imitations which act unsatisfactorily. Therefore, when buying, to get its beneficial effects, always note the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package of the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

For sale by all leading druggists. Price 50 cents per bottle.

Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Restores color to faded hair. Gray hair to its youthful color. Cures scalp diseases. Price 25c a bottle. Sold everywhere.

AUTOMOBILE SPEED KING OF THE WORLD.

THREE VIEWS OF "WILD" BOB BURMAN, WHO WILL BE AT THE MICHIGAN STATE FAIR AUTO RACES WITH HIS BIG BENZ CAR.

This is the man who has traveled through space faster than any human being ever traveled before and lived. He has dared to do something that no other mortal ever accomplished before, and through his daring has gained the title of the "World's Speed King." Robert Burman is shown here at the wheel of the monster Benz car which he will pilot in the Michigan State Fair auto races. Burman is the holder of the world's straightaway records for the kilometer, mile and two-mile distances, and during the past five years has left behind him a trail of records broken and victories won. Burman is one of the most peculiarly constituted men in the world today, living what might be called a dual existence. In everyday life he is quiet and unassuming and a thorough business man, but behind the wheel of a racing motor a mania seems to seize him and Burman becomes a man semi-frenzied in his desire to conquer time and set space at naught. Unlike former drivers who have reached the pinnacle of fame in the world of speed, Burman refuses to retire from hard fought competition with others and relies upon exhibitions of his skill to increase his fame. Traveling through space at the rate of almost two and one-half miles a minute is not conducive to the best of complexions, so the speed king has devised the unique mask shown above to protect his face during his thrilling drives in his monster Benz car.

RACING PROGRAM IS BEST EVER OFFERED

Grand Circuit Dates for State Fair
Will Bring Together Fastest
Horses in World.

No fair organization in the country has ever presented so elaborate and so expensive a program for harness events as that of the Grand Circuit Meeting for the Michigan State Fair this year. The purses aggregate $55,000.

Patrons of the Michigan State Fair will be treated to the highest class of horse racing in the world this year, as the management has secured dates in the Grand Circuit. This means that all the fastest horses in the world and all the famous drivers will participate in the big events that will be raced during the first week of the fair.

The stellar feature of attraction will be the great Michigan Stake, worth $10,000. The list of entries already secured guarantees a wonderful contest that should prove one of the great races of the year. There is also a $5,000 pacing race and class races for all the Grand Circuit horses. In recognition of Michigan as a center of horse breeding, the American Association of Trotting Horse Breeders has decided to award to the Michigan State Fair its matron stake, one of the great colt races of the trotting turf.

The arrangement of the card showing the future events of each day is not completed, and when it is published there will be five days of Grand Circuit races that will furnish some of the turf history of the season of 1911.

A LIVE STOCK SHOW OF THE HIGHEST ORDER

Every animal at the State Fair will be the pick of the farm, selected for the purpose of competing for a premium and the excellence of the show will be fully equal to its magnitude. The people will not only have an opportunity to see the animals but to ascertain their characteristics, and to learn the late and improved methods of rearing, feeding and caring for all kinds of live stock. The State Fair offers unexampled opportunities for sale and purchase of live stock, and buyers, as well as sellers, are cordially invited to attend and take advantage of this opportunity.

NO LIQUOR ON GROUNDS.

Its Sale Is Positively Prohibited by the State Fair Management.

The sale of liquor of any kind or description anywhere on the grounds is positively prohibited by the state fair management. For a number of years a bar was conducted under the grand stand, but last year the board adopted a resolution declaring against the liquor concession and the resolution will be rigidly enforced again this year.

HOW FELICIA SHOWED HER.

When Mrs. Sildell, who lived across the street from the Trentons and had two marriageable daughters of her own, learned that young Dr. Baldwin was devoting himself assiduously to Felicia Trenton it troubled her.

"Felicia is a good girl in many ways," she said confidentially to half a dozen of her most intimate friends, "but she is certainly not the girl for a struggling young physician to marry. While she has the appearance of being a good manager and all that, and everybody knows that she simply runs things at home, it seems to me that it's more a sign of bad temper than anything else. That poor little mother of hers just gives in to her because she knows there would be a tremendous fuss if she didn't. Of course, she seems to have so much attention from men, but you'll notice that none of them keep it up very long."

"You remember Tom Hays, don't you?" continued Mrs. Sildell, warming to her theme. "Of course, some people say to this day that he was desperately in love with Felicia, but to my own personal knowledge he never went near her the last time he was in town, and, in fact, I understood from the very best authority that this was because she had a jar of rouge sitting on the mantel one night when he went there."

"Then there was George Gleason. George did go there a great deal and seemed perfectly devoted, but I know that they were almost engaged, and one morning he went there unexpectedly. She had been doing some work around the house and had on a kimono and dreadful old slippers and her hair up in curl papers, and all that sort of thing, and George just turned around and went away and never went back again."

It was odd, and of course very unfortunate that Mrs. Sildell should have been taken so ill as to require the services of a physician just at the time when her own family doctor was out of town. Felicia Trenton laughed when she happened to look out of the window and see the doctor going up the Sildell front steps to make a professional call. She laughed again when she met him at her own door.

"What's the joke?" asked the doctor.

"What did she say about me?" she asked.

"Who?" the doctor began. Then he, too, laughed. "Conceited young woman," he said; "what makes you think she said anything about you?"

"Precisely," responded Felicia lightly.

SPLENDID MUSIC.

State Fair Crowds Will Be Entertained by Two Great Bands.

Schumann's Military Band and Al Green's Military Band, both high-class musical organizations, will furnish the band music at the state fair this year. There will be daily concerts from the stand located in the grove and one of the bands will be in constant attendance in the grand stand.

Some people think they are guests, but others find them jests.

It was some weeks later that Felicia met Mrs. Sildell just coming out of Dr. Baldwin's office. Mrs. Sildell seized Felicia's hand in an affectionate grasp.

"I understand that you're a great friend of Dr. Baldwin's," she gurgled. "You know I dread having a new physician, so I was simply distressed to death when I was taken so ill when Dr. Toole was out of town. But I've simply fallen in love with your Dr. Baldwin."

"Oh, please don't call him my Dr. Baldwin's protested Felicia. "I really know him very slightly. He didn't make much of an impression on me when I met him."

"Is that possible?" cried Mrs. Sildell. "Why, my girls consider him perfectly charming. You know he has dined with us several times, and just between you and me he's very much taken with Isabel. You know Isabel is so natural and unaffected, and Dr. Baldwin tells me that he particularly dislikes artificiality."

"He'll never like me, then," said Felicia. "Let me hurry up and get away, so that there won't be any possibility of his seeing me. One of my eyebrows is on crooked right this minute." She hurried away with a laugh. "Cat," she said to herself. "I'll show her."

Fortune favored Felicia, for a few days later, just as she was stepping out of Dr. Baldwin's small, but very correct, little motor car, assisted by the doctor's devoted hand, Mrs. Sildell came trimming lightly, lovingly toward them. "Shall I tell her?" murmured the doctor. Felicia nodded.

"You darling," cooed Mrs. Sildell, as she stopped beside the two. "How lovely you look, and such a beautiful color! And how becoming that style of hair dressing is to you!" she gushed on. "You don't know how often I've envied you your lovely color and your beautiful heavy hair!"

Felicia patted her curls approvingly. "They are rather nice, aren't they?" she inquired. "But you can have plenty if you want to pay for it. To tell you the truth, though, I'm getting a little bit tired of the hair I have now. Dr. Baldwin is going to get me $30 worth of new hair and the latest thing in complexions. Perhaps he would fill a commission for you, too. You would, wouldn't you, John?"

"Gladly if I have time after getting the all-important suitcase," responded the doctor cordially. "I must tell you the good news," he continued, "that Miss Trenton and I are engaged, and I, at least, am ready for congratulations."

The National Grange

Conducted by Charles M. Gardner, Editor of the National Grange, Westfield, Mass.

SUCCESS OF THE GRANGE

Past Year Has Been Marked by Exceptional Advancement and Extension of the Order.

Everybody is interested in something that succeeds, and so is the present remarkable Grange popularity all over the country in part explained. The past year in the history of the Grange has been marked by exceptional advancement and by a degree of extension of boundaries never before equaled in the Grange movement in this country. The last issue of the National Grange Monthly summarizes this extension work most concisely and there is much information contained in the following statement from that paper:

One of the tests of the vitality of an organization is found in its capacity for growth, as witnessed by the accession of new members and the establishment of more branches. When such evidences appear, it is reasonably safe to believe the organization prosperous and its outlook good.

Thus measured, the National Grange may well be congratulated on what the nine months of its present year have wrought in the extension of its boundaries. During the months of the present summer quarter the hot weather and the busy activities of the farm are likely to preclude much extension work; so that the nine months from October 1 to July 1 practically cover the organization season of the year.

For the quarter ending January 1, 30 new Granges were organized and 16 were reorganized; for the quarter ending April 1, 186 new Granges were organized and 20 were reorganized; for the quarter ending July 1, 118 new Granges were organized and 13 were reorganized; making a nine months' total of 403 new Granges organized and 49 Granges reorganized.

A more substantial evidence of the strength of the order could hardly be asked than in its capacity thus clearly shown, to build up itself in new fields and to attract to its membership the thousands of people which the charter rolls of these new Granges represent.

It is further significant to note that these new Granges represent extensions of the order in all the Grange states. In the first quarter's organization, 23 states shared; in the second quarter, 25 states; in the third quarter, 22 states. For first place in organization records, there appears to be pretty stiff rivalry, and enough desirable competition to make the contest lively. So far Ohio heads the list, with 46 new Granges during the nine months; Oregon is a close second, with 45 new Granges; Michigan organized 41; Washington, 40; New York, 38; Pennsylvania, 27. Here in these six leaders is vividly seen Grange interest in the far east, in the middle west and on the Pacific slope. Similarly widespread interest and growth are evidenced in the states of fewer organizations, while every listed Grange state in the country has shared in the institution of new Granges or the reviving of old ones.

These are some facts about the Grange which patrons who desire to be thoroughly informed on the order will do well to keep in mind. They will prove a good answer to people who are continually seeking to discredit the Grange and to belittle its influence and popularity, and may well be stored up in memory for use on needed occasions. Grange growth is steady, substantial and nationwide.

REST ROOMS FOR THE WOMEN

Grange Committee in Michigan Is Establishing Them in the County Court Houses.

An interesting phase of Grange work is brought to light in Michigan, through a plan to establish "rest rooms" in the county court houses. This is a plan taken up by the woman's work committee of the Michigan State Grange and is already well under way. In Antrim, Oakland and several other counties, such rooms are set aside in the court houses, which are free for the use of any woman who wishes to rest during shopping, or desiring to use the toilet or lavatory, rearrange her hair, eat a box lunch or have a cup of tea; also to pass the otherwise weary time while waiting for trains or as an appointment place for meeting friends. The women of the counties already provided find these "rest rooms" a God-send indeed and there is a call for their extension into other counties as rapidly as possible.

It is the present plan of the woman's work committee, when it shall be proved that these "rest rooms" meet a genuine need among the women of the state, to extend the idea by having the rooms fitted up very attractively, supplying them with numerous conveniences not yet attempted and having competent attendants in charge. That such rooms shall also be used as conference centers and as meetings places for various projects in which the women of Michigan are interested, is also one of the further objects to be striven for. There are more than seventy counties in Michigan, which affords a glimpse of the magnitude of the present movement, if the hopes of the promoters can be even approximately realized.

A PHYSICAL WRECK.

Given Up By Physicians—Cured By Doan's Kidney Pills.

Edward Gucker, 612 S. 14th St., Mattoon, Ill., says: "I could scarcely stand the terrible pains in my back and I gradually ran down until I was a physical wreck."

My kidneys were in terrible condition—the urine passing too freely and being a chalky white in color. My appetite failed, I lost flesh rapidly and could not sleep. The doctors thought I had only a short time to live. I was so greatly improved after short use of Doan's Kidney Pills that I continued and was completely cured. I am positive that Doan's Kidney Pills will cure any case of kidney trouble if taken as directed.

Remember the name—Doan's.

Cement Talk No. 3

Concrete is the hardened rock-like product made by using some brand of Portland cement with sand, gravel or broken stone and water. The cement is the material which binds the sand, gravel or broken stone together; this binding action is produced by water. The terms "Cement" and "Concrete" thus have different meanings, although they are frequently used interchangeably. While cement is only one of the materials in concrete, it is perhaps the most important. To insure the best results in concrete work, the highest grade of Portland cement should be used. The concrete worker may rest assured that he has the best cement if he will make certain that the word UNIVERSAL is printed on each sack of cement that he buys. Representative dealers everywhere handle UNIVERSAL.
